

VOLUNTEER as TEACHER m/w

2-9 months
from now

Founded 2010 in Somerset West, Young Bafana Soccer Academy aims to alleviate poverty-related social drawbacks in South Africa. Through education and sports programmes we promote the individual development of our beneficiaries' sustainability. Currently, we positively influence the lives more than 120 children. In addition to the performance football in the age groups U13, U15 and U18, our football teams are supplemented by integrative school teams. Making it possible to prepare our children for the future, off the streets away from drugs and gangsterism.

For our educational program we are looking for students studying teaching and are interested in developing our Township kids both in the classroom and individually. Your task will be the conduction of the classes as well as the proactive improvement and development of our educational programme.

Your tasks include:

- Preparation, conduction and documentation of the regular English and mathematics tutoring of our player in the age group of 10 – 18 years
- Analyzing the school reports and individual tutoring
- Supervision of the 'Raising star' program
- Organization and conduction of lessons at out-of-school educational opportunities
- Selection of suitable teaching materials
- Support the transition – from the school to the job

What we expect from you:

- Student of teaching, ideally English teacher
- Proactive and independent working
- Interested in different cultures
- Readiness to deal with the existing circumstances

We offer:

- An extraordinary stay in South Africa
- Working and living together within a multicultural team
- Weekly team workshops
- Insights into the work of NGOs and the practice of grassroots and competitive football in South Africa
- Interesting and varied tasks
- Change lives!

We look forward to your meaningful application including a cover letter and CV. Please send by e-mail to Bernd Steinhage: bernd@youngbafana.com or berndsteinhag@gmail.com
